POSTAGE	$ 3.00
LATE SUBMISSION OF RE-REGISTRATION OF AN IMPORTED DOG
(i) Report made after 180 days from date of its arrival in Singapore	$400.00

It is compulsory that anyone applying for registration must first become a member of the club.

Documents required for Registrations: -

1) Official Export Pedigree or Certified Pedigree issued by the Kennel Club of its country of export.

*New owner's name must reflect on the export pedigree or certified pedigree.

2) Airway bill

3) Import Licence

4) Quarantine certificate where applicable.

Note: A surcharge will be imposed on those who do not comply with this rule and the acceptance for the late registration shall be at the absolute discretion of the Governing Council. SKC reserves the right to conduct random inspection of the dog/bitch before processing with the registration.

All particulars asked for must be given and must be fully entered before submission. In the event that there has been a delay in receipt of the export or certified pedigree, the breeder's pedigree must be produced whereupon "provisional registration" may be granted. Full registration can only be effected upon receipt of the official export or certified pedigree within six months of the date of this application.
